

Initiatives to Accelerate

Quick Wins

Enablers

	Service Network Collaboration	Channel Shifting	Service to Business	Death Notification	Data Driven Intelligence
Approach to Acceleration	Request that 2-3 Deputy Ministers (DMs) champion co-location pilots.	Ask DMs to endorse and utilize the behavioural Insights Playbook within their jurisdictions.	EBS: Engage a consultant to develop a strategy, which will provide recommendations for accelerating EBS. Ask Federal and Provincial (Manitoba) DMs to champion EBS to accelerate the work.	Develop communication strategy to Funeral Home Directors and engage Directors on digitizing current notification processes. Possible expansion of Vital Event Linkages to territories through the National Routing System. Pilot a digital-first approach as a pathfinder for CDI.	N/A
Quick Win	The service mapping tool will help identify opportunities for F-P/TM in-person service collaboration.	The Behavioural Insights Playbook will share knowledge, tools, and approaches, which will benefit all jurisdictions looking at digital government.	Business Number: ISED/CRA web services pilots will validate identity federally and could be a pathfinder for PTs. Efforts under EBS could be a pathfinder for the BN.	Obtain approval of the death registration and notification blueprint to improve the timeliness of death notification and registration.	The DDI Framework will help us understand where there are opportunities to use different data sources and data analytics in the area of service delivery. Open Data: Federated data pilot will serve as a pathfinder to allow Canadians to search data across multiple jurisdictions simultaneously.